Atlantic Centre's Participation in the "Strategic Triangle Summit" Organized by IPDAL in Lisbon

On 21-22 May 2025, the Atlantic Centre (AC), represented by its Coordinator, Rear Admiral Nuno de Noronha Bragança, participated in IPDAL's annual conference, the "Strategic Triangle Summit: Latin America & Caribbean – Europe – Africa", held in Lisbon and presented by IPDAL's President, Dr. Paulo Neves.

The AC moderated the panel "Defence and Security – Ensuring Stability in a Multipolar World", highlighting the importance of strong democratic institutions, regional cooperation, and effective security and defence mechanisms.

The intervention also emphasized the centrality of the African perspective, the need for integrated and inclusive responses to global challenges, and the importance of maritime security coordination in today's multipolar context.
