High-Level Visit of Latin American Ambassadors and Signing of Memorandum of Understanding between the Atlantic Centre and IPDAL

On 24 June 2025, the Atlantic Centre (AC) and the Institute for the Promotion of Latin America and the Caribbean (IPDAL) organized a high-level visit of Ambassadors from Latin America and the Caribbean to the AC headquarters at the Ministry of National Defence.

The visit aimed to present the AC's work in the field of Atlantic security and cooperation and to promote a space for strategic dialogue with diplomatic representatives from the region.

The highlight of the visit was the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding between the AC and IPDAL, which reinforces the institutional partnership and foresees deeper cooperation in areas such as international security, political dialogue, training, and multilateral coordination in the Atlantic space.

With this initiative, the AC and IPDAL reaffirm their commitment to bringing continents closer together and promoting greater strategic integration between Latin America and Europe, contributing to the strengthening of the Atlantic community.
