

Institutional Presentation to the Delegation of Permanent Representatives to the United Nations

11 february 2026

On 11 February, the Atlantic Centre – represented by its Coordinator, Rear Admiral Nuno de Noronha Bragança – had the opportunity to deliver an institutional presentation to a delegation of Permanent Representatives to the United Nations, at the Portuguese National Ministry of Defense.

The presentation highlighted the previous initiatives at the Atlantic Centre, as well as the activities planned for 2026, including the VI Maritime Security Course to take place on 1 to 4 of June in Ponta Delgada, Azores.

This engagement reflects the Atlantic Centre's continued commitment to strengthening international partnerships, as well as to promoting comprehensive approaches to security and development challenges in the Atlantic area.
