

PRIVACY NOTE

The data collected in the application form shall be processed by the National Defence Institute (IDN), with headquarters at Calçada das Necessidades, 5, 1399-017 Lisboa, which shall collect basic personal data (name, date of birth, email, telephone contact, curriculum vitae) for the purposes of application to the IV Maritime Security Course of the Atlantic Centre. The legal basis for processing personal data is the exercise of functions of public interest and the legitimate interest pursued by IDN.

The data collected is processed and stored in strict compliance with personal data protection legislation.

Data subjects are guaranteed the right to access, update, rectify, forget or delete their personal data at any time, as well as to subsequently exercise their rights to oppose and limit the use of the data provided for the purposes described above, and should therefore send a request to this effect to the IDN Data Protection Officer, by email to epd.rgpd.idn@defesa.pt or by letter to the National Defence Institute, at the following address: Instituto da Defesa Nacional, Calçada das Necessidades, 5 - 1399-017 Lisboa. In cases where the data subject considers that their data is not being adequately processed, they may choose to contact the Control Authority, a function which, in Portugal, is carried out by the National Commission for Data Protection.
