Atlantic Centre Meets with United Nations Delegation

On July 21, the Atlantic Centre (AC) welcomed a delegation from the United Nations Department of Peace Operations, specifically from the Office of the Assistant Secretary-General for the Rule of Law and Security Institutions (OROLSI).

The meeting served to explore synergies between the two entities, particularly in the areas of institutional capacity-building, integrated approaches to security, and support to vulnerable coastal states. Both sides expressed interest in deepening cooperation, with a focus on knowledge exchange, strategic coordination, and potential joint initiatives in the Gulf of Guinea region.

This engagement reflects the Atlantic Centre's continued commitment to fostering international partnerships and advancing comprehensive solutions to security and development challenges across the Atlantic.
