Atlantic Centre's Coordinator integrates official visit to Ghana

The Atlantic Centre's Coordinator, Rear Admiral Noronha Bragança, was part of this week's official visit of the Minister of National Defence, the Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Navy's Chief of Staff to Ghana.

During this trip, on July 3rd, on board the NRP Setúbal, a Memorandum of Understanding was signed between the Atlantic Centre and the Gulf of Guinea Maritime Institute (GoGMI), consolidating the partnership between these institutions.

Ghana's participation in the Atlantic Centre was one of the items on the agenda of this trip, which also included a visit to the Kofi Annan International Peacekeeping Training Centre (KAIPTC). The Atlantic Centre's Coordinator accompanied the Minister of National Defence and the Minister of Foreign Affairs on the visit to the KAIPTC, opening doors for a future collaboration between the Atlantic Centre and this entity.
