Atlantic Centre participates in the African Peace and Security Annual Conference in Morocco~

The Atlantic Center participated, on the 10th and 11th of July, in the 7th edition of the African Peace and Security Annual Conference, dedicated to the theme “Post-Conflict Reconstruction in Africa”, which took place in Rabat, capital of Morocco.

The Atlantic Centre’s Coordinator, Rear-Admiral Noronha Bragança, intervened at a panel entitled “An Effective International Institutional Partnership for Peacebuilding”, on the 11th of July.

This annual conference, organized by the Policy Centre for the New South, brings together several stakeholders, including policy-makers, researchers, practitioners and civil society, and aims to promote high level conversations on peace and security in Africa.
